Manitoba Government Members 'Exonerated' of Machray Responsibility

MINISTER OF EDUCATION IS RESPONSIBLE

Hon. R. A. Hoey Accepts Blame for Appointment University Bureau

WINNIPEG, Dec. 3.—Members of the Manitoba government today were exonerated by Hon. R. A. Hoey, Minister of Education, of any responsibility for the resignation of the University of Manitoba Board of Governors, of John A. Machray, after it was known the former bursar and chairman of governors, was heavily indebted to the college trusts.

Resignation responsibility for the resignation last June was accepted by the Minister of Education who testified before a commission enquiring into $1,000,000 shortage in college funds.

ACCOUNTS SHORT

A letter of May 23 from the Commissioner General informed the government Machray's accounts were short at least $750,000 but Mr. Hoey said he was under the impression this was only a matter of allocation and believed the situation would be cleared up as he heard a similar situation had in previous years.

At great length the witness described as many others have done, the long series of events leading to the imprisonment of Machray for embezzlement of university funds.

FINALLY GRASPED

It was not until a few days before the aged bursar was arrested that the minister of education and his colleagues grasped the significance of the affair.

Mr. Hoey denied the charge made before the commission that a change in book-keeping methods had caused a deficit in audits of the trust accounts books. He agreed he had not complied with the statutes in presenting an annual university report to the legislature without an appended statement of investments.

He claimed it was the duty of the board of governors to see that the college demands were met.

To Fill Old Nail Holes
Before painting your walls fill up all old nail holes. To do this, make a mixture of fine sawdust and glue and fill the holes with it. Allow it to dry thoroughly, then sandpaper over the filled holes until smooth. Then paint. You will never know there were holes if a nail hole becomes too large, fill it in the same way. Then hammer the nail in again.

Former President of Cuba Protests Reign of Terrorism in Native Land

Noted Caricaturist, Also From Troubled Isle, Interviews Executive Forced Into Exile by Machado Government, Which Is Described as Cruel Dictatorship

(Authentic news that has crept through Cuba for the past few days has indicated a reign of terrorism under the dictatorship of President Machado. Central Press noted that the former president of Cuba, who is now in exile in New York, has been described as a cruel dictator.)

BY CONRADO W. MASSAGUER
NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—In the roomy apartment of a hotel facing the eastern side of Central park, Major General Mario Garcia Menocal, a distinguished engineer, sugar planter and land owner, as well as soldier and president of Cuba for eight years, has been making his residence until he went to Florida a few days ago.

General Menocal is accompanied by his wife and their children, Mario and Raoul, their nephews, Martin, and the general's inseparable friend and companion in arms in last year's revolt and later in Cubanian prison, Dr. Pedro Martinez Praga, young congressman.

The Cuban leader recently arrived from Europe, where he went upon being obliged to depart from Havana, under the protection of the Brazilian fleet. His children escaped from Cuba under disguise several weeks ago.

General Menocal was educated in the United States. He is a graduate of Cornell University. He is determined not to place in jeopardy either his American friends or embarrass the government by any campaign beyond the limits of free expression of opinion.

In his suite here he has received political and business friends. One of the newest arrivals, among the many persons banished or fleeing from Cuba, is Dr. Pedro Herrera Sotomayor, Cuban lawyer, writer and his wife and four children. He is en route to Spain. Not only was he exiled, but his property confiscated, following four months in prison.

Dr. Sotomayor said he was harshly treated in prison. Once he was actually marched to the execution chamber, when the interference of some military friends saved his life.

Conditions in Cuba are pitiful, Dr. Sotomayor added. "President Machado is taking money which he should spend for relief of the people and is using it to strengthen the army," he said. "There will be a revolution soon—and it will be one of the bloodiest of our time. The people cannot stand oppression forever."

One traveler returned from Cuba describes the Machado regime as one of "continuous martial law" with "hundreds of men everywhere." And it may be added, the leaders of opposition political parties either imprisoned or done away with.

more aching than the feeling which comes from these organs being squeezed and pressed upon by a prolonged stomach, especially after a full meal is eaten.

Disease of the kidney, where degeneration exists or if renal calculi are present, will result in nausea similar to that produced from gallstones or liver trouble.

It is not difficult for the physician, who is a good diagnostician, to find out the exact cause which produces any kind of nausea. Of course, a complete examination must be made, and it is then unnecessary to guess.

A patient examined a few days ago had been to eight other doctors to find out what was making her nauseated. Practically every one of these physicians made a superficial examination, tried to guess the cause of the trouble and then wrote out a prescription.

They had all been wrong as I found, by the Graham's gallbladder test, that she had a gallbladder three times its normal size filled with thickened bile.

This is an examination made by giving the patient capsules of a certain dye which is absorbed by the gallbladder. X-ray pictures will then show exactly the shape and condition of the gallbladder. The patient has started to fast and nausea has already disappeared, and she is now on the road to recovery.

If you are troubled with nausea, try a fast and die for biliousness, and, if this does not get rid of the nausea, have a good diagnosis and find out what is causing the trouble.

To The Ladies ...

"MY DEAR—HAVE YOU HEARD ...?"

WHETHER it is a brilliant reception for distinguished visitors from afar, or a little journey to a nearby town by your neighbor, the Bulletin social columns print it first!

Hostess

Suggestions

There you will always find, too, delightful little hostess suggestions, witty stories of everyday happenings among the women of the city, laughable cases of mistaken identity, amusing blunders made by prominent people—every day a gay little story offers interest at the top of the social column.

Home and Abroad

But, of course, you are interested in the things women are doing at home and abroad! — I mean, being ignorant of the Big Movements today simply isn't done. Household hints have been replaced by world economics at bridge tables, and the women's point of view is always given in an interesting, easily read and enlightening manner in the Bulletin women's section.

Women's Organizations

Whether you belong to the Creeche or the I.O.D.E. or the White Shrine of Jerusalem, you'll find faithful recordings of clubs' activities in the Bulletin each day. And, of course, there are interesting interviews with women visitors you might like to meet but can't, and all the little personal touches about those charming people who come to give lectures and speeches at the Canadian Club and other organizations.

Baby holds the future in his hands and it is terribly important that he should grow up with a sweet disposition and a broad mind.

Little things lead to great issues. If Baby grows up into a confirmed "Red" you will have to ask yourself whether the powder box was employed to the best advantage ...

If Baby grows up into an embittered and hopelessly soured individual, it will probably be because the safety pins of infancy were carelessly fastened so as to impale sensitive portions of his anatomy.

Avoid errors. Follow the articles on Baby nurture in the women's section. Remember: "The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world."

HINTS on COOKERY.

By Sister Mary every Thursday and Friday

Proper food is the foundation of everything, because the state of the stomach determines the state of the mind.

These are days when every ounce of mental efficiency is required to meet the abnormal demands upon it.

Let "hubby" go to work with an unhappy "inner man," a cranky mood and a brain that is not hitting on all six, and the threat to the family happiness — and possible fortunes — is obvious.

Sister Mary will show you how to make the best of everything. The "How" and "Why" of food, what to choose, how to prepare it and how to economize.

Sister Mary's articles and recipes are all up-to-the-minute, and will be invaluable to the hostess.

Remember to read "Sister Mary" in our women's section.

WHEAT PRICES HIT NEW LOW LEVELS AGAIN

WINNIPEG, Dec. 3.—Wheat prices on the open exchange here closed up 1/2 cent in the face of weakness in Chicago but failed to show any further improvement in the north wheat market. The market was quiet and steady, with prices for the month of December and May reaching new lows.

December closed at 41 1/2, May at 41 1/2 and July at 41 1/2.

It was reported that in the winter wheat crop in the United States, there is a heavy rain fall over a large portion of the country, especially in the north wheat section. The crop in the western section, however, was fairly good. The wheat crop in Canada was also fairly good, but the weather was not so favorable as in the United States.

MOM 'N POP

REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

BEFORE POP HAD A CHANCE TO TELL MOM ABOUT THE TWO HITCHHIKERS LEAVING A GIP CONTAINING $50,000 IN HIS CAR, MOM BEGAN BAWLING HIM OUT BECAUSE HE DIDN'T MAKE AS MUCH MONEY AS MR BRAGG

SO BRAGG'S WIFE HAS BEEN OVED AGAIN, BLOWING ABOUT HOW MUCH HE MAKES. WELL, IF I HAD HIS DOUGH I'D WORK WITH IT.

GEE! MAYBE I'LL NEVER FIND THE RIGHTFUL OWNER—IN THAT CASE I CAN USE THE $50,000 AND CLEAN UP!

FOR THE TIME BEING I COULD HIDE IT UNDER THE SEAT—BUT EVERY TIME YOU HIT A BUMP THE SEAT BOUNCES OUT

IF I PUT IT UP HERE, AMY'S SURE TO SPOT IT THE FIRST THING

THAT'S JUST THE PLACE! NO ONE WILL EVER LOOK IN THERE

I'LL DUMP IT IN THE BOTTOM AND PUT THIS JUNK ON TOP

that money can buy.

Little Orphan Annie

I TELL YUH, FOLKS, IT'S A SHAME— POOR MR. AND MRS. MUDDLE AN' ALL THOSE KIDS HAVEN'T A THING TO EAT AND NOT AN OVERCOAT AMONG 'EM—

THEY LIVE IN THAT TUMBLE-DOWN OLD CABIN, WAY UP IN TH' HILLS, A MILE FROM ANY ROAD— SANDY AN' I JUST HAPPENED TO FIND 'EM, WHEN WE WERE HUNTING— THEY'LL STARVE SURE, IF SOMETHIN' ISN'T DONE—

WHY, SAY— I'LL BE GLAD TO GIVE 'EM GROCERIES OUT OF MY STORE—

I'LL GIVE 'EM SOME CLOTHES— THEY HAIN'T NEW BUT THEY'RE WARM—

I CAN SEND 'EM A HAM, AND SAUSAGE, I RECKON—

I'LL SEND WARM OVER-SHOES FOR THE WHOLE OUTFIT—

I'VE GOT SOME BLANKETS AND A COMFORTER THEY KIN HAVE—

AND I'LL SEND SOME SWEATERS FROM MY STORE—

BUT SAY— HOW WE GOIN' TO GET THIS STUFF UP TO 'EM?

THAT'S RIGHT— IT ISN'T SO FAR, BUT THERE'S NO ROAD AND IT'S BEEN SNOWIN' A HEAD—

YOU FOLKS GET TH' STUFF TOGETHER, AND HAVE IT ALL HERE, SOON AS YOU CAN— I'LL SEE TO DELIVERIN' IT— JUST LEAVE IT TO ME—

WELL, SANDY— WE'VE GOT A BIG JOB AHEAD OF US— HOLD STILL, WHILE I GET YOUR HARNESS ON— WE HAVEN'T ANY TIME TO WASTE—

WE'VE GOT A LONG TRIP TO MAKE, FORE DARK— AND WE'LL HAVE A HEAVY LOAD AND IT'LL BE 'MOST ALL UP-HILL GOIN'—

I'M PUTTIN' IN A FEW PAPERS TO READ AND SOME TOYS FOR TH' KIDS— TH' MUDDLES DON'T GET MUCH FUN, I GUESS—

O.K. SANDY— MUSH—

GEE— DIDJA EVER SEE FOLKS SO GENEROUS? TISN'T LIKE ANYONE IN COSMIC CITY HAS SO MUCH EITHER— THEY'RE JUST NATURALLY BIG HEARTED, THAT'S ALL—

IF FOLKS IN BIG CITIES FELT TH' SAME FRIENDSHIP FOR POOR FOLKS THAT SMALL TOWN FOLKS FEEL, THERE'D BE A LOT 'LESS SUFFERIN', I BETCHA—

Private Life of a Toy

JUST A BATTERED OLD WRECK, CONsigned TO THE OBLIVION OF A DUSTY CORNER IN THE ATTIC—

THEN, ONE DAY, THE MISSUS BROUGHT HER GRUMBLING HUSBAND UP TO LOOK AT ME—

HE CARRIED ME DOWN STAIRS AND I WAS HANDED OVER TO A TRUCK DRIVER WHO SORE ME OFF TOGETHER WITH A LOAD OF OTHER BROKEN TOYS—

A LITTLE WORK SHOP AND AN OLD MAN, WITH KINDLY EYES AND NIMBLE, SKILFUL HANDS—

AGAIN I STOOD SQUARELY AND SOLIDLY ON FOUR SOUND WHEELS— A NEW TONGUE REPLACED THE SHATTERED REMNANT I HAD BORNE SO LONG— I WAS STRONG AS NEW—

AND THEN I WAS PAINTED, STRIPED AND VARNISHED— AND FOR WHAT PURPOSE WAS ALL THIS DONE, YOU ASK? FIRST IN ORDER, THAT A POOR OLD MAN MIGHT HAVE OCCUPATION—

AND SECOND, THAT SOME POOR CHILD MIGHT BE MADE HAPPY THIS CHRISTMAS WITH A TOY— THIS ALL CONCERNED IN THIS ENTERPRISE GAIN, BUT I GAIN MOST OF ALL FOR I HAVE RECEIVED A NEW LEASE ON LIFE—
